

DAY FOR MEMORY AND FOR TEARS

Civil War Veterans Out Yesterday with Bible and Prayer Book.

NOT TOO OLD TO PRAY

Church Services on Memorial Sunday Were Marked with Sombre Tone.

YESTERDAY IN THE CHURCHES

Patriotism and long memories of an army of heroes that is passing quickly with the years gave tone and motive to the most of the church services yesterday. Memorial Sunday has come to be an annual day "for memory and for tears" with the surviving veterans of the civil war.

Next Thursday some of them will march in panoplied array to the stirring tunes of the fife and drum. Then they will lay wreathes upon the graves of their forgotten comrades.

But the church ceremonials were marked by a more sombre tone. Old men who cannot march, white haired loiterers whose steps are out of tune with tramp or drum limped slowly to church to sit in the gray shadows with nothing braver than a prayer and nothing more showy than a tear for the legions that are gone.

Not Too Old To Remember
A majority of the Grand Army of the Republic is too old to march. But it is not too old to remember and to pray. Perhaps there will be fewer old, faded uniforms in the parade next Thursday, but the feeble veterans who will strew no more flowers and march in no more parades, were out with Bible and book of prayer, mindful of the glory that is not in flags or guns and hopeful of a new reunion in which every comrade may answer "Here."

At the Congregational Church
In many of the local pulpits yesterday messages of patriotism were inspired by the thought of the coming Memorial day and in the majority of the churches the congregations listened to sermons which centered around the heroic deeds of forty years ago.

A remnant of that noble army which fought so bravely and so successfully for the preservation of the union of states attended the service at the Congregational church yesterday morning and in their honor a magnificent congregation filled the body of the church and most of the seats in the gallery.

Members of W. H. Sargent Post, No. 20, G. A. R., and of their auxiliary organization, W. H. Sargent W. R. C., No. 21, occupied seats in the center of the church, both societies being largely represented. Both organizations carried the stars and stripes and the church was handsomely decorated with flags and white flowers.

Most Inspiring Services
The services were of a most inspiring nature. The choir gave two excellent anthems, "Our Land O' Lord With Songs of Praise" by Schnecker and "To Thee O Country" by Eichberg. Mrs. F. E. Lewis, the organist being assisted in the accompaniments by Mrs. W. T. Sherer at the piano. The children's choir sang beautifully "Freedom, Our Queen" by Paine. The children's sweet voices were accompanied by organ, piano and orchestra under-

EX-GOV. TANNER'S FUNERAL

Thousands Join in the Final Tribute to the Former Executive.

Springfield, Ill., May 27.—The body of former Governor John R. Tanner was lowered into the grave almost within the shadow of Lincoln's tomb in Oak Ridge cemetery yesterday afternoon. Many distinguished and representative citizens surrounded the grave, where the last rites were performed. From the beginning of the services in St. Paul's pro-cathedral until the salute was fired over the grave and the mourners dispersed, the funeral ceremonies were the most impressive ever witnessed in this city. The funeral was of a distinctly military character. The state paid its last respect to the dead this morning when 12,000 persons filed through the capitol building from 8 a. m. until 1:30 p. m. while the body lay in state. During these hours a never-ceasing stream of humanity passed on either side of the casket and took a farewell look upon the familiar features.

PORTLAND CEMENT AT A SMALL COST

Thomas Edison Explains This Material To Take the Place of All Other in Building of Houses.

New York, May 27.—Thomas A. Edison, the wizard of electricity, has discovered how to make "Portland" cement at a small cost. This discovery at first thought seems to be practically unimportant. Yet Edison knows the immense value of his discovery. He expects that his cement will drive out quarried stone and brick as building materials. He foresees as the result of his discovery that it will cost very little to build houses, and that therefore rents will be very low. He also sees that these same houses will be as nearly fireproof as concrete and steel frames can make them.

With cement so cheap a house will be "poured," not builded. And the "pouring" of the house will occupy but a few days. The house will be habitable when the concrete solidifies.

For several years Mr. Edison has been working on the concrete problem and the making of cheap and practical storage batteries. Both inventions have now been perfected. Insurance Engineering which will be published tomorrow, will contain an interview of its editor with Mr. Edison. The inventor says cement, combined with steel will be the building material of the future.

SOUR LAKE ADDS TO FLURRY IN OIL

Gusher Flowing 15,000 Barrels a Day. Is Brought In, on New Field Near Beaumont

Dallas, Tex., May 27.—A great strike of oil at Sour Lake, twenty miles northwest of Beaumont, is fully confirmed. A well was struck at five o'clock yesterday evening in the rear of the Sour Lake hotel and at once became a gusher, flowing 15,000 barrels a day. This new strike so far from the Beaumont field has caused renewed excitement all over Texas, and a rush to the new district is already on. The Postal Telegraph company have arranged to open an office at the Sour Lake oil field in the morning.

Mosher Denied His Guilt
Chicago, May 27.—Before Judge Horton Saturday Policemen Patrick J. Sheehan and John D. Mosher were sentenced to the penitentiary upon conviction of larceny. Their term of service is indefinite. Mosher, still stolid and defiant, denied his guilt. "I have lived in Chicago some nineteen years he said. I stole nothing from Hugh McDougall. I am not guilty."

PORTO RICO IN NO SENSE FOREIGN DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT

Territory Acquired By U. S. Cannot Be Considered Domestic For One Purpose and Foreign For Another—May Cause an Extra Session.

Washington, May 27.—The decision of the supreme court in the insular case is against the government. The first case considered was that of DeLima vs. Bidwell, collector of the Port of New York. In this case the court holds that the territory acquired by the United States cannot be considered domestic for one purpose and foreign for another. The duties heretofore collected under the Dingley act after the ratification of the treaty of Paris upon goods coming from Porto Rico into the United States are illegal. Justices Shiras White and McKenna dissented from the opinion of a majority of the court. Justice Brown read the opinion.

During the first part of the reading it appeared that the government's side was being sustained and bulletins to this effect were sent out by many of the correspondents. Later on, however, it became clear that the government's claim was completely defeated.

In the most pronounced terms Justice Brown declared that the territory acquired by treaty or conquest could not be considered in any sense foreign.

The court holds that Porto Rico becomes a "territory" under the treaty of Paris not simply territory.

On this point it may be found necessary to hold a special session of congress. Under the treaty of Paris Spain was granted permission to export free of duty to its former possessions coming under the jurisdiction of the United States for ten years.

This agreement, under today's decision will give Spain the privilege of carrying her goods into Porto Rico and from that territory carried free into this country being a practically free admission of Spanish goods to any part of the United States.

END OF CHINA WAR IN SIGHT; AMERICAN TROOPS WITHDRAWN

Agents of the Emperor Have Arrived in Peking to Repair the Palace for the Occupation of the Royal Court Very Soon.

Peking, May 27.—The military officials of the various powers are actively engaged preparing to evacuate the city, evidently believing that the end of the Chinese trouble is in sight. Agents of the emperor have arrived to repair the palace for the occupancy of the royal court.

American Troops Withdrawn
Washington, May 27.—General Chaffee in a dispatch to the war department announces the departure this morning from Taku for Manila of all American troops.

PRESBYTERIANS WILL CHANGE CREED; ASSEMBLY DECIDES ON REVISION

By a Decisive Vote the Majority Report Providing for a New Creed Was Carried at the Philadelphia Convention This Morning.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 27.—The revisionists won in the Presbyterian assembly. A majority report was adopted this morning and a committee will be appointed to change the creed. The next assembly will be in New York.

Two of the three recommendations of the majority report were adopted and a compromise substituted for the third. The matter was settled by a viva voce vote, there being but few noes.

After the vote the members sang, "Praise God from Whom All Blessing Flow," and many embraced each other.

After the revision of creed questions is settled there are a half-dozen subjects still to come before the assembly, any one of which would have been deemed important, and caused a long discussion had it not been overshadowed by this greater question.

Dr. G. W. F. Birch of New York wants his ecclesiastical court established.

Dr. R. S. Holmes of Pittsburgh wants the church to control its missionary and benevolent offerings, even those collected and distributed by the women and the young people's societies.

and Dr. W. H. Roberts, the stated clerk, is desirous of having a plan of oversight for young people's societies.

Dr. R. F. Sample of New York has a plan which he thinks will solve the problem of vacant churches and unemployed ministers, and California and New York both want the next assembly. All these questions and a score of others are still on the docket.

GERMANS DO NOT LOVE AMERICANS

Washington, May 27.—During the two years that I have been abroad I have not seen an indication of friendship for the United States in any German or French newspaper, and I have read them constantly," said former Senator Mitchell of Milwaukee yesterday, in speaking of his two years sojourn abroad. The senator is here visiting his son who rose from the ranks after serving in the Spanish-American war.

"There is no denying that the Germans don't like us, nor do the French," said he. "They regard us as their rivals and fear the effect of trade competition. The English are bound to us by natural ties of advantage. We supply them with food and the many trade conditions make them our friends. They realize that it is to their advantage to be on the closest terms of friendship with us. But with the German it is different. He regards us as a rival. The Germans do not feel rightly toward the German-American. They regard him as unpatriotic in breaking away from the country of his birth."

"I like the Germans very much as a people and the Germans in America are the finest people in the world. But I do not like the German government. Politically Germany is an autocracy, while socially it is an aristocracy. Although the country has a constitution, the emperor is practically a dictator. He does as he pleases."

M'KINLEY TRAIN IN A RAIN.

Fall of Moisture Adds Much to the Party's Comforts.

Ogden, Utah, May 27.—The presidential train traversed the state of Nevada and reached Ogden at 6:30 o'clock p. m. The route lay along the Humboldt river, through the Ruby and Wasatch mountains, and then descended into the Salt Lake basin. During most of the day the elevation exceeded 5,000 feet, and snow-clad peaks were continually in sight from the car windows. At this season of the year the ride across Nevada is oppressive, and dust from the desert is frequently building. Fortunately for Mrs. McKinley one of those heavy rainstorms which so rarely visit this region swept completely over the state last night, laying the dust and tempering the atmosphere. It rained also several times during the day. Dr. Rixey reports that Mrs. McKinley is standing the trip well. She has suffered no inconvenience from the rarified atmosphere. The train left Ogden after a fifteen-minute stop.

SILVER SERVICE FOR A BATTLESHIP

Commission from Wisconsin Arrives at San Francisco with Gift for Vessel Named After State

San Francisco, May 27.—A commission has arrived from the state of Wisconsin with a $10,000 banquet service which is to be presented to the battleship Wisconsin by the state whose name the vessel bears. The formal presentation will be made today or tomorrow. In addition to the silver service there is also a bronze badger four feet high cast from Spanish cannon captured during the recent war.

DE RODAYS IS FORCED OUT.

M. Perivier Assumes Sole Editorship of the Paris Figaro.

Paris, May 27.—M. Antonin Perivier, heretofore with M. Fernand de Rodays, joint editor-in-chief of the Figaro, announces in this morning's issue of the paper that he has assumed the sole editorship as the outcome of the recent managerial disagreement. He says the journal will return to its ancient programme—"to please, instruct and amuse"—and will remain "patriotic without being politically partisan."

It appears, according to the Gaulois and other morning papers, that the change in the editorship of the Figaro was a veritable coup. A meeting of the shareholders yesterday afternoon sustained the managing committee and at 10 o'clock last night M. Perivier appeared at the office and insisted upon M. de Rodays leaving. The latter drew a revolver. The commissary of police was summoned, but he refused to interfere. Finally M. de Rodays was induced to depart.

A majority of the staff refused to obey M. Perivier, who summarily discharged them and appointed new editors. The paper appeared at the usual hour. It is probable that a lawsuit will ensue.

Cornell-Beloit Game Cancelled

Beloit, Wis., May 27.—Cornell, Ia., college has cancelled its game with Beloit, scheduled for Wednesday. Beloit people are making preparations to attend the Beloit-Wisconsin game at Janesville on Memorial day, and probably over 1,000 will go from this city to see the game.

No More Deaths Reported

Albany, May 27.—No more deaths are reported as the result of the collision on the Albany & Hudson road yesterday. All of the injured are improving.

HOT FIGHT ON FOR TWO TOGAS

Tillman and McLaurin Preparing for a Fierce Struggle

FREE FIELD IS ASKED

Both Are Confident of Re-election to Senate from Which They Resigned.

SOUTH CAROLINA WILL BOIL

Washington, May 27.—Profound interest is expressed here in the double-headed resignation of the two senators from South Carolina. It is generally regarded as the most dramatic event that has occurred in American politics since the withdrawal of Senator Teller and his silver colleagues, tears in their eyes from the republican national convention at St. Louis in 1896. As South Carolina was the leader of the secession movement designed to break up the union so South Carolina may be the pioneer of the change which is to break up the solid south.

Sudden and Dramatic Event

The most sudden and dramatic event, the resignation of two senators from that state as the result of a bantering in joint debate at the town of Gaffney, near Columbia, may prove to be another Fort Sumter in the importance of its ultimate results. It marks the beginning of what will doubtless prove to be the most interesting, most sensational and most significant political campaign waged in a southern state since the war of the rebellion.

The joint resignation from United States Senators Tillman and McLaurin, which will become effective on September 15, reached Governor McSweeney's office today. In the resignation the fighting colleagues have asked for a special primary election for this year, when the Bryanism of Tillman and the so-called republican doctrine of McLaurin can be put to the test. When this election shall be held has not yet been determined.

Senator Tillman Pleased

Senator Tillman seemed very much pleased with himself today. He considered that he had gained a very important advantage over Senator McLaurin, and that he risked little, while McLaurin's chances of getting out vindicated were one in a hundred. "McLaurin made a bluff at me," he said, "and I did not think I would call him. After I had made an assault upon his honesty and integrity of purpose, he tried to parry that by taunting me with the assertion that I would not leave my six years bombproof. I saw the opportunity to make a ten strike for democracy. I was ready to take it regardless of personal sacrifice. I want South Carolina to say whether she wants two republicans or two democrats in the senate. If the people do not care to re-elect me I do not care to serve them."

Statement by McLaurin

In reply to a request for a statement, Senator McLaurin said: "Tillman just made one of his bluffs, but this time he got called. I put him into a position where he either had to resign and go into a senatorial race with me or else confess he was bluffing and afraid to risk his political scalp, though willing to knife me in a campaign in which he had nothing to risk and was not a candidate. And he could not afford to crawl in public."

"All I desire is a free and open

HONOR FOR MISS HARRIET BOSTWICK

Janesville Girl Elected to the Honorary Fraternity of the University, the Phi Beta Kappa.

Madison, Wis., May 27.—Miss Harriet Bostwick of Janesville was one of those elected Saturday to the honorary fraternity of the university, the Phi Beta Kappa. Election to this fraternity is considered the highest honor that a student can earn as it is accorded only to those seniors and juniors who have maintained the highest ranks in the scholarship during their college course.

The Phi Beta Kappa election is held each spring at a special meeting of the university faculty. Fourteen members of the senior class and seven of the junior class are given the honor.

Miss Bostwick graduated from the Janesville high school in 1897 and entered the state university the next fall, pursuing the English course in the college of letters and science. She is a member of the Delta Gamma society and is a leader in university social life as in the class rooms. She is the daughter of the well-known Janesville merchant J. M. Bostwick.

Frank Kimball on Freshman Crew

Coach Andrew M. O'Dea is putting forth his best efforts to round the freshman crew into shape for the annual race with the St. John's military academy eight, which will be rowed over a two mile course on Lake Monnoma on June 7. The men have been changed about considerably of late in order to find the fastest combination. The material this year has been very good from which to pick the crew and competition for seats in the freshman shell has been exceedingly warm.

Frank Kimball of Janesville has been rowing our number five for the past two weeks and is fairly sure of holding his seat. This means that he will row against St. John's in the race, June 7, and will represent Wisconsin in the freshman race of the annual inter-collegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie about June 30.

GENERAL SYNOD LUTHERAN CHURCH

Fortieth Biennial Convention at Des Moines, Ia., This Week—Wisconsin Second in Membership

Des Moines, May 27.—The fortieth biennial convention of the general synod of the Lutheran church of the United States is to be held in Des Moines, beginning May 29 and continuing for ten days.

The membership of the church has grown rapidly in the United States during recent years by reason of the large immigration from Germany and the Scandinavian countries. The Anglicized Scandinavians and Germans, forming a large proportion of the nation's best citizenship, have brought this church to a position ranking third in strength among the Protestant churches in the United States.

The Lutheran population in the United States according to the latest figures, amounts to 7,386,746. In the States Pennsylvania ranks first with 1,318,338, Wisconsin second with 965,514, and Minnesota third with 875,442.

The general synod is composed chiefly of English speaking churches, and is the most distinctly American of any of the Lutheran organizations. These organizations differ only in detail of administration, and in some church customs. They all have the same creed, the Augsburg Confession, though some of the churches have made additions to it. The total membership of the Lutheran church in the world is over 59,000,000.

This year's convention will be composed of 264 ministers and lay delegates, with about sixty officers, missionary secretaries, chairmen of committees, making 320 delegates.

DAY FOR MEMORY AND FOR TEARS

the leadership of J. S. Taylor. Miss Jennie Spoon was the pianist.

The offertory so-o was "Zion" by Paul Robney and it was impressively sung by Robert B. Kanouse.

on "American Ideals".
Rev. Robert C. Denison presented a stirring sermon on "American Ideals" saying in introduction that he wished merely to give a few of the ideals that must be preserved by the American nation. Many things have been accomplished by war. Through it the path has been hewn to liberty. But there are many things which cannot come to a nation by war and which must come by the slower processes of peace. It is only in times of peace that a nation can be brought up to its ideals. Great as are the patriots of war, there are greater services which can only be accomplished by the patriots in the time of peace.

Foreigners still claim that America is only an experiment. If this be so, her success does not depend on her great ability to build monster cannon and battleships but on the loyalty of men in being true to the highest citizenship in times of complex duty.

Types of Patriotism
Patriotism is one of the ideals that must be preserved, but true patriotism does not consist of flying flags on the Fourth of July of shooting and cheering. It is simply the love of country at all times and in all places. The greatest type of patriotism is that displayed by the soldier who faces death on the battlefield, but there are other types that America needs. The falsification of tax lists is making a nation of perjurers. Visitors to foreign lands consider themselves shrewd if they can elude the custom house officials and smuggle articles home on which they ought to pay duty. The deeper type of patriotism would respect the common duties of honor even when applied to tax lists.

Wants a Pure Government
Patriotism does not depend on boasting of America's greatness in material things. The true patriot boasts of higher things. He wants for his country a righteous ballot and a pure government. He must not be blind to the nation's faults, but he must covet for his country the purest and highest citizenship and he must have a veneration for law. America was founded on respect for law and there is no true liberty but liberty under law.

One of the sacred things in national life is obedience to law as it is found on the statute books. If the laws are wrong change them, but as long as they are there they should be obeyed. The breaking of law is false to American traditions and the man or official who winks at it, instead of prosecuting it, is a menace and an enemy to the nation.

Hopefulness an Ideal
Hopefulness is an ideal to be maintained. It has become proverbial that there is nothing that an energetic American cannot do in material things and yet by his own confession there is nothing he can do in moral things.

This is an un-American sentiment. Men said slavery could not be eradicated. Are the men who proved that false the ones to sit down among the moral evils of today and say there is nothing they can do? Does that sound like Lexington, like Grant? The American spirit must be kept alive in moral things. Anything can be done that ought to be done.

The Brotherhood of Man
The brotherhood of man must also be kept alive. No man lives to himself. The Virginian planters who bound up tobacco in exchange for slaves did not pay for the introduction of slavery. The debt was paid by those who made the sacrifices of the civil war and the future will pay for the mistakes which the nation makes today.

American spirit should be the broadest and should embrace the world. The splendid standard of soldiers at Lexington and still higher at San Juan hill until the American soldier is the best in the world. God made America free and it is safe, but it should give as far as it can towards other nations.

There should be no hatred but the great idea of universal brotherhood. American ideals are world ideals and every home and school should be a center of patriotism. American citizenship should stand together in patriotism, respect for law, hopefulness and the endeavor to give to the world the blessings of free manhood and free womanhood.

At the First M. E. Church.
Special memorial services were held at the First M. E. church both morning and evening. At the morning service Rev. W. W. Woodside preached an able sermon on "How the Dead Speak." In the evening a service of unusual interest was held it being a memorial-temperance meeting. Mrs. V. H. Campbell, of Evansville, president of the Rock county W. C. T. U., spoke very eloquently, confining her remarks almost entirely to the temperance question and referring to it along political lines.

Mrs. M. G. Townsend, an Ohio evangelist of note who has recently moved to Milton to make her home there, gave a very fine memorial address. While it was mostly devoted to reminiscences of the civil war and eulogies of the brave heroes of that time, Mrs. Townsend also voiced some excellent temperance thoughts.

The musical service was very fine, the chorus choir rendering a beautiful anthem. In compliance with a request Arthur Clark repeated the euphonium solo, "Nearer My God to Thee" which he played at the W. C. T. U. convention. Miss Elva Crawford played the accompaniment on both occasions.

Mrs. C. F. Yates Withdraws
Mrs. C. F. Yates, under whose efficient leadership the chorus choir of the Presbyterian church has been conducted successfully for the past four years, concluded her services yesterday. Mrs. Yates' resignation has been made necessary by ill health. She was forced to give up her duties as choir director, the first of the year, but was induced to resume them before Easter and she decided to finish the year's work, her contract with the church expiring the first of June. Her untiring work has been greatly appreciated by the congregation at the Presbyterian church and both the choir and congregation regret sincerely the fact that she has been forced to discontinue her work among them.

Robert B. Kanouse, who has recently come here from Madison has been engaged as Mrs. Yates' successor and he will enter upon his duties as chorus leader immediately.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

A smooth set of short change men have been operating in Portage and vicinity. The game was tried on Groceriesman T. W. Drew, and at the meat market of Richmond & Stone, but the swindlers were foiled. At Briggsville the swindlers worked an unsuspecting clerk in Kimball Brothers' store, receiving $19.75 in change for a $1 bill. The same game was worked on Bishop and company in Endeavor.

The Willow River Lumber company is now bringing its logs by rail on the Wisconsin Central as well as the Omaha. The New Richmond saw mill has obtained its entire supply of logs from distant points by rail, and is the first mill in this region to rail its logs any great distance.

The Oshkosh company of the Wisconsin National Guard is making an effort to raise $5,000 reward to total fund of $20,000, to purchase the Merritt street Turner hall. The company intends to borrow $15,000 and pay off this debt in various ways.

The Winnebago district convention of Congregationalists will be held at Depere June 4 and 5. Programs and invitations will be sent out in a few days.

The peas sown by the canning company of Sheboygan are beginning to show themselves in many fields. If the weather is favorable canning will commence in about four weeks. Chas. Hoffmann, who is the planter of the canning company in Manitowoc county thinks that the pea loss will not be troublesome this year.

Mayor L. A. Fletcher the recently elected republican chief executive of Chippewa Falls, has issued an order banishing to oblivion all slot machines and gambling devices. Chief of Police Thornton at once enforced the order, notifying the saloon keepers to get rid of their "nickel-eaters" favor banks and roulette wheels. The administration is determined to have for some time run unmolested by the authorities.

Miss Meda Yell, while attempting to cross the track ahead of the Wisconsin Central passenger train, at Prentice was struck by the pilot of the engine and thrown against the platform and received a large scalp wound on the back of her head. It is feared she is injured internally. Had it not been for parties catching her she would have been rolled under the train and ground to pieces.

A force of men is expected at Western Union Junction this week to begin work on a sidetrack to be constructed from the main line to the plant of the Brown-Corliss engine factory, about a block south of the depot. The railroad company has delayed the completion of the plans for a new station at that point until the prospect of the proposed factory was definitely known. It is now claimed that a handsome brick structure will be erected to take the place of the structure recently destroyed by fire.

The Simmons strike is now practically the only one now on in Kenosha. That threatened in the machinery world has no bearing on Kenosha since all firms manufacturing machinery in this city have agreed to sign the scale next Saturday, and the striking malsters of the Pettit Malt company have effected a compromise, with the firm and returned this morning.

The class of '01 of the university will leave a novel memorial when it goes from the institution at the end of the semester. It was decided at a class meeting to present a chair of heavy carved oak, which is to be used by the president on state occasions. The chair will be kept in the main hall where a special place will be reserved for it.

The Wisconsin Pharmaceutical association holds its twenty-first annual convention in La Crosse Aug. 13, 14 and 15. The entertainment committee is now preparing a program. Papers will be read during the convention on the manner of conducting a drug store and a series of prizes will be offered for the best papers.

A banquet was held at the home of James M. Stebbins of Kenosha last evening in honor of the sixty-fourth anniversary of the arrival of the host in Kenosha. Seven men were seated around the table and every one of them has been a resident of Wisconsin since 1837.

Principal A. N. Hatherell who has been at the head of the Fifth ward school of Oshkosh for the past six years, has just been elected principal of the Fourth ward school of Appleton at a salary of $1,100 a year. He is an experienced instructor.

BELOIT TEAM IN LEAD

Is Now Claiming the Championship in Base Ball Among Western Colleges for 1901.

Beloit college is now claiming the championship in baseball among our western colleges for the season for 1901. The men at Beloit sent out their claim after they had defeated Notre Dame on Thursday during the past week. Adkins was in the box for the Beloit men and pitched a strong game. The Beloit team won by the decisive score of 9 to 1. Up to this week Notre Dame had been Beloit's closest rival in the percentage of games won.

If this determines a collegiate championship Beloit seems to have made the best record. The Beloit team has played thirteen games with the large as well as the small colleges of the west, and has lost only two one going to the University of Chicago early in the season.

An Early Morning Fire
An alarm of fire turned in from box 46 at the corner of Franklin and Union streets shortly after seven o'clock this morning called the department to the home of William F. F. Stendel, who resides at 420 South Franklin. When the department arrived the fire was found to be blazing fiercely in a small barn and wood shed close to the rear of the house which was a frame structure. It was blazing fiercely and was a total wreck before the flames were extinguished. The rear of the frame house was badly scorched. The damage to the house and barn will amount to about $150 and is covered by insurance. No one at the house seemed to know how the fire started.

WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP.

Tailor-Made Suits

The sale of suits this year is unprecedented. When one stops to think that almost every woman wants one it takes a great many to supply the demand. Manufacturers have made great strides in the turning out of suits. We do not try very hard to sell suits at less than $10, but at $10 we show good ones, on up the scale they go $11, $12, $13, $14, $15, $16, &c. up to $35. Black and colors in great variety. Large, medium, and small sizes. Extra nice styles for extra small women and misses. During this month and next we will make low figures on suits to reduce stock.

Alterations Free.

We have an expert tailor who oversees all alterations.

McCall Bazar Patterns

are fast taking precedence over all other patterns. Hundreds of people in Janesville and southern Wisconsin who formerly used other makes, are now using McCall Patterns. We daily get orders from all over the state and adjoining states for McCall PATTERNS. There is a reason for this growing popularity. All 10c and 15c, none higher.

McCall Bazar Dressmaker

Containing over 600 patterns, should be in every home. Only 15c.

Wash Summer Goods

One season seems to vie with the other in creating lovely novelties. As time wears on, manufacturers get more expert, but one might well think that they had reached the zenith of perfection, judging from the charming effects that grace the shelves and counters. This store never had as many or more beautiful conceits in cotton dress stuffs than it shows now. The DIMITIES, the..... Lawns, the Tissues, the Alexandria silk (fine mercerized cotton fabric), the silk warp muslins in plain, figured, and satin stripe, the silk stripe cotton grenadines, remind one of a lovely bouquet as they are mingled together on the counter.

DIE IN TROLLEY COLLISION

Five Killed and Many Hurt in Awful Crash

NEAR GREENBUSH, NEW YORK.

Two Crowded Cars Met. While Racing for a Switch—Fully 120 Men, Women and Children in a Struggling Pyramid of Wreckage.

Albany, N. Y., May 27.—Two crowded electric cars racing toward each other for a switch while running at the rate of forty miles an hour collided near Greenbush in the afternoon with terrific force. Five persons were killed and more than a score injured, at least two fatally and others seriously. The passengers on the cars, which run on the Albany and Hudson railway, were pleasure seekers bound for various resorts and many of them were of rich and fashionable families.

The dead are: Frank Smith, motor-man; William Nicholas, motor-man; Maud Kellogg of Round Lake; Annie Rooney of Stuyvesant Falls; David Mahoney, mate on the Dean Richmond. Fatally injured: George C. Barry of Troy, hurt internally; Fred J. Smith of Albany, injured internally. Seriously injured: William F. Barry of Troy, cuts on head; Mary Barry of Troy, leg broken; George P. Bittner of Morrisville, cut and bruised; Isaac Blauvelt of Albany, leg broken; De Witt C. Peltz of Albany, badly bruised; Charles Peltz of Albany, painfully bruised; Howard J. Rogers of Albany, bruised and cut; Mrs. H. J. Rogers of Albany, cut and bruised; H. J. Rogers of Albany, leg broken; A. W. Crottsley of Albany, hurt internally; George Lane of Albany, badly cut; Fred Herzog of Albany, shoulder dislocated.

The lobby of the postoffice at Greenbush after the disaster was filled with dead and wounded, with hysterical women and children looking for relatives and friends, and with surgeons administering temporary relief, while ambulances were hurrying through the town taking the wounded to hospitals and the dead to the morgue. The point on the single track where the collision occurred was at a sharp curve. So sudden was the collision that the motor-man did not have time to put on the brakes before south-bound car No. 22 had gone almost clean through north-bound car No. 17 and hung on the edge of a high bluff with its load of shrieking, maimed humanity. One motor-man was pinioned up against the smashed front of the platform with both legs severed. He was killed instantly, while the other motor-man lived but a few minutes. Fully 120 men, women and children formed a struggling, screaming pyramid, mixed with blood, detached portions of human bodies and the wreckage of the cars.

Victims of the Great Gale

Milwaukee, Wis., May 27.—Seven more victims have been added to the list of those perishing in last Friday's gale. This fact became known when a waterlogged, dismasted hulk, all that remains of a schooner, was sighted by an incoming steamer. Beyond doubt it is the three-masted schooner C. H. Hackley of this city, which met the storm while on its way to Sheboygan. The Hackley, which was manned by Captain Oertling and a crew of six men, was due at Sheboygan the night of Friday. Its failure to reach the port and stories of floating wreckage had aroused the fear that the vessel was lost, but no confirmation of the disaster was obtained until today.

Hulk Seen Far from Shore.
When the steamer Boston arrived it brought news that proved the worst fears true. Captain McLeod reported having passed the wreck of a three-masted schooner, its decks flush with the water, and the boat apparently deserted. The hulk was about ten miles off shore, and between Sheboygan and Milwaukee. What made the identity of the ill-fated vessel certain was the fact that the Boston passed through quantities of floating slabs, which extended twenty miles in the lake. The Hackley was loaded with slabs. The Boston passed within five miles of the wreck and the strong gales of the officers failed to show the slightest sign of life on the deck or in the rigging.

Escape of Crew Impossible.
That Captain Oertling and his six seamen escaped is believed impossible, as had they reached shore they would have been heard from long ago, and if adrift on wreckage they could not have survived long in the wild storm of Friday. No schooner except the Hackley is missing, all that were out during the gale having reported since the wind subsided. The slabs seen by the men on the Boston are believed to have come from the deck load of the Hackley. The rest of the load, in the schooner's hold, would keep it afloat. A tug will be sent out to locate the derelict, and, if possible, salvage the schooner and the cargo. A vessel arriving here has reported sighting wreckage and a part of the rigging of a schooner. Despite this, marine men hoped for news that the Hackley was safe. The Hackley was owned by H. Oertling, who was in command on the last voyage. It was built in 1868, measured 207 gross tons, and was 124 feet long by 27 feet beam. It was built for Hackley of Muskegon and for many years carried the lumber from his mills.

Excursionists on Burning Boat.
Menominee, Mich., May 27.—Two hundred passengers on the steamer Fannie C. Hart were thrown into panic by a fire on the vessel while far from shore. When the flames appeared above the deck there was a rush for the boats, but the officers fought the excited throng back and held the people in check until the seamen got the fire under control. The boat was bringing an excursion party, members of the Sons of Hermann society and their families, from Escanaba to this city.

Only One of Crew Saved.

Boston, Mass., May 27.—The steamer Ohio from Hull, which has arrived, reported a collision at sea with the Norwegian bark Elise from Moss, April 1, for New York, in ballast. One sailor was picked up, but his stories are so conflicting that it is hard to tell if the bark went down with fourteen men or not. The supposition is that it did and only this sailor was saved. The collision occurred in a fog.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Chas. H. Yale's "The Evil Eye," which is to return here next Monday evening, June 3d, for a limited engagement at the Myers Grand, has been drawing phenomenal crowds in the metropolis this season in spite of the warm weather. The spectacle, which has been re-written and re-built, is the best kind of a hot weather show. Its action is as rapid and light as any one could require, its music is simple and tuneful, there is a constant flow of humor, and a succession of beautiful stage pictures. The dancing of the Phassey Troupe and the exquisite effects secured in the Electric Ballet are said to be among the best features of an exceedingly good show this season, and the cast which numbers fifty people, and which is one of the best comic opera organizations on the road, includes Chas. A. Loder, Mayme Mayo, Artie Borani, and Tommy Elliott, Miss Lora Lieb, Charles Flynn, John Guilmette, George W. Kerr and others.

Pawnee Bill's Combined Shows gave two performances here yesterday, and we have never seen larger or better pleased audiences at other exhibitions in our city. The Mexican hippodrome races are exciting and wonderful, and the reproduction of the Mountain Meadow massacre and vivid and must realistic drama of life in the land of the setting sun was well worth double the price of admission. The lassoing of wild buffalo and long horned Texas steers, the rifle shooting of Miss May Lauer, the wonderful performance of riding and at the same time, thirty-five wild mustangs, are all grand features. This show has the reputation of performing all it advertise. It deserves it.—Rochester, N. Y., Herald.

Long Pupil Makes a School.

Waukegan, Ill., May 27.—Miss Gertrude Sullivan is teaching the smallest public school in Lake county. It is at Fremont Center, and has an attendance of one pupil. Ordinarily there is an enrollment of thirty to forty, but the children have dropped out to do spring work on the farms until only one girl is left.

Says Maccabees Hurt Him.

Miles City, Mont., May 27.—Glendive have a novel case in court. Rev. Henry Warman, a Methodist clergyman, has filed a complaint against J. R. Widmeyer and fifteen others, claiming $5,000 for personal injuries. The complaint recites that Mr. Warman joined the Maccabees some months ago and that the defendants handled him so roughly that he was seriously and permanently injured.

Manila Road Asks Damages.

Washington, D. C., May 27.—A Manila paper received at the war department says that the Manila & Dagupan railway has presented a claim to the authorities there of $2,300,000 for damages sustained during the insurrection. An agent of the road, it is stated, is coming to Washington to present the claim.

Goes to Drake University.

Nora Springs, Iowa, May 27.—Professor C. D. McGregor of the seminary here has been elected to a chair in Drake University at Des Moines, Iowa. This has the effect of bringing his candidacy for the Iowa senate to a close, as it will take him out of the forty-fourth senatorial district.

Theories About Food

Also A Few Facts on the Same Subject.

We hear much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism and many other fads along the same line.

Restaurants may be found in the large cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food crank is in his glory, and arguments and theories are advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomachs, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors who lived four score years in robust health on roast beef, pork and mutton must have been grossly ignorant of the laws of health.

Our forefathers had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A warm welcome was extended to any kind from bacon to acorns. A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best. As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables and grains.

Dr. Julius Reimann on this subject says: "Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat meat and plenty of it. If the digestion is too weak at first it may be easily corrected by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other natural food in three hours, and no matter how weak the stomach may be no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets because they supply the pepsin and diastase necessary to perfect digestion, and every form of indigestion will be overcome by their use."

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspeptics should eat plenty of meat and insure its proper digestion by the daily use of a safe, harmless, digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets composed of the natural digestive principles, pepsin, diastase, fruit acids and salts which actually perform the work of digestion. Cheap cathartic medicines masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for indigestion as they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of the food.

Dyspepsia in all its many forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the dyspepsia is to make daily use at meal time of a preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which is endorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50c for full treatment. A little booklet on cause and cure of stomach trouble mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The letter of Assemblyman Keene of Milwaukee to the ladies of the W. C. T. U., will be a revelation to that organization in the state.

The question of Wisconsin suffrage for women, has never been seriously considered and has usually been regarded as a joke, as Mr. Keene says. It is doubtful if a majority of the members of the W. C. T. U. in the state, would vote for it, and if they did, it would only express a fragment of sentiment.

The average Badger state woman is not clamoring for suffrage or anything else in the way of impractical reform. The married women of the state, as a rule, enjoy the companionship of conservative husbands, who are neither populists, prohibitionists nor extremists.

They have discovered that the crowning glory of womanhood is home keeping, and they are content to leave the discussion and settlement of political questions to the men. If they had the ballot, the most of them would vote as their husbands did, unless their husbands belonged to the henpecked class. In that case the wife would go out in Kansas and cultivate the acquaintance of David Nation.

There are some women in this country that will never be happy this side of heaven or Kansas. A few of this class were mixed up with the intelligent delegation at the late convention. One of them presented a resolution that no preacher should be permitted to occupy a pulpit who was not a third party prohibitionist. The presiding officer possessed the good sense to table the resolution before it came to a vote.

If the W. C. T. U. would become vigorous and strong, numerically, the organization will need to abandon suffrage, politics, and Carrie Nations, and devote its energies to gospel temperance work.

The order became mixed up years ago with John P. St. John, the prohibition crank from Kansas, and discussed seriously the question of forming an alliance with him, by placing on the national prohibition ticket a woman for the office of vice president. Constitutional restriction was all that prevented the carrying out of this visionary program. St. John was willing and the Pittsburgh convention was ready to act.

This disposition to enter politics cost the organization more in the way of sympathy and support than it has ever regained, and the same disposition that continues to crop out now and then, greatly retards the progress of its growth. The salt of common sense is a good thing to use freely in all reform movements.

WHAT IS DEGENERACY?

Professor Starr of the Chicago University is authority for a new version, on degeneracy. The learned professor in talking to his class of young men, a few days ago, took occasion to say that, men who smoked cigarettes, wore shirt waists, and parted their hair in the middle, evidenced symptoms of degeneracy.

The statement was quite startling to the class, which was largely composed of college athletes, and generally guilty of the charges contained in the professor's denunciation.

It is gratifying to know that the colleges are taking on new fads. A professor at Evanston the other day told a class of girls that he never hugged or kissed a woman, and the inference was that he was a freak, posing as a specimen of modesty and high toned morality.

The occupant of another chair in the same college, advised the boys to beware of college girls, when they went out gunning for a wife. And now comes along Prof. Starr with the consoling statement that young men generally are degenerates, or at least that is what his definition amounts to, carried out to its logical conclusion.

This new class of fads, however, is less dangerous than their immediate predecessors. Good and true men will go on hugging and kissing their wives and sweethearts, in spite of the lonesome professor's warning, and men will continue to chance the lottery of life with college women for helpmates if they can gain the love and consent of the women, and "degenerate" young men in shirt waists, and flowing locks parted in the middle, will still walk up and down the earth, and not be considered dangerous. Prof. Starr to the contrary, notwithstanding.

If the colleges will devote their spare time to the discussion of these light and airy topics, they will do no harm, and there will be some hope for the next generation of college bred men.

For the past two or three years the heavy guns of these institutions have, many of them, been trained against the administration, and some of the doctrines taught have been most pernicious.

Militarism, anti-imperialism, and free silver, have rung the changes, until the minds of many young men have become so befogged that it was difficult for them to determine, whether or not it was an honor to be an American citizen. It is time to call a halt, and discuss the immorality of an innocent kiss, the incompetency of college bred women as house wives, the degeneracy of the shirt waist and middle hair part, or anything else that may excite the active brain of the college pedagogues.

Let the good work continue, and the result will show an increase in the ranks of loyal American citizens.

The Chicago Tribune, in an editorial on "Indirect Capital Punishment" insinuates that there are crimes for which mob lynching is a just retribution, providing the state or county has abolished capital punishment. This is a surprise to the cooler heads—that any crime can make the overthrow of law right. There is no law under heaven that gives to man the right to take another man's life; that is left to God alone; and above all things in a law loving country, to find a metropolitan paper justifying mob violence against law, is a shock even to people generally thoughtless on such subjects.

THE FATE OF DOWIE.

People generally will rejoice in the fact that Dowie has been caught, and is to be held for trial. While some of his deluded disciples may continue to have faith in him, and pronounce the action against him "persecution," this sentiment will not extend to the masses.

It is a deplorable fact, but nevertheless true, that some intelligent people are so carried away with one idea that it is easy to adopt it as a hobby and ride it to the verge of lunacy. This has been forcibly demonstrated in Dowieism.

The disciples of this new faith are, many of them, people of culture and refinement, yet with minds so nearly unbalanced that they were ready to adopt the creed of an impostor. The work of the law in saving this class of people from themselves, is commendable.

The Leyland line of steamers, owned by Americans, cannot fly the American flag, as our navigation laws allow registry only to ships built in America. This is a hindrance to the supremacy of America on the seas, and ought to be modified.

Competition cannot be crushed out, or even regulated for any length of time, and combination is only deceiving itself by thinking so.

The failure to affect business was the only one reported as the result of the flurry on Wall street last week.

If King Edward will turn 1901 upside down, he will have 1061, the year Edward the Confessor ascended the throne of England. But we do not expect King Edward VII, to turn the first year of the century upside down.

Morgan may need one of his own steamers to return home on, if his friends don't stop some of their wild speculations.

Shamrock II, will encounter worse disaster on this side of the pond than any she has met with so far over there.

English ship and steel owners evidently are not acquainted with J. P. Morgan. They are preparing to fight him.

The recent strike reminds us that hard times is willing to take the bivalve any time and give capital and labor each a shell.

The Cuban delegate resembles the husband sent to market—he has come home with everything but the one he was sent for.

We expect that Shamrock II, will be second when the race is finished.

Plans for New Library

It is expected that the plans for the new library building will be ready to submit for bids in ten days. Architect Jennings is pushing the preparation of the plans as rapidly as possible. He was in the city on Saturday and consulted with the members of the building committee and Mrs. F. S. Eldred at a meeting held late Saturday afternoon.

"Wanted A Man"

An interesting meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon; the subject was, "Wanted A Man," and was discussed by W. F. McCoy, F. F. Lewis, J. A. Skinner, Archie Crawford and W. J. Knight. A great many interesting facts were brought out by the speakers and the audience was well pleased with the talks. There was plenty of good music which helped to make the program an enjoyable one.

AUTHORITIES OFFER REWARD OF $3,000

HOT ON THE TRAIL OF MINERAL POINT ROBBERS.

It is definitely known that they secured $26,000 in currency—Pinkerton Detectives have the burglary in charge, and will leave no stone unturned to capture them.

As yet no important clue to the men who robbed the First National Bank at Mineral Point has been secured. It is now definitely known that the robbers secured over $26,000, the most of it being in currency. The authorities have offered a reward of $3,000 for the capture of the robbers and the citizens of Mineral Point have been scouring the surrounding country seeing if they can secure any clue which will lead to their detection.

A Pinkerton detective is working on the case and has unearthed several things since his arrival at Mineral Point. The ladder that was used to get from the roof of the building down into the vault was cut in the woods nearby. The place was found where it was cut and made and a saw used by the robbers was found at that place. A farmer living a short distance from the town had a sick cow that night and was up attending to it. He saw three men go by on bicycles shortly after the time the robbery is supposed to have been committed. From this the police are confident that the men escaped on bicycles as three bicycles were found in the woods near the railroad track where the men had abandoned them.

The robbery must have occurred at about 1:30 o'clock as the clock in the bank was stopped by the shock and the position of the hands showed that it was about that time. It is said that a stranger arrived in Mineral Point about two weeks ago. He is described as being about five feet nine inches high of medium weight, with red hair. He had a dark suit, broad brimmed felt hat and wore spectacles.

He left his boarding house on Friday night and that was the last seen of him. His landlady went to his rooms and found a note saying, "I have gone to Dodgeville, when I want my grip I will send for it." The police opened the grip he left behind and found a complete set of burglars tools, consisting of saws, files, drills, fuse caps and other things. They at once took possession of the outfit.

The Pinkerton detective telephoned Chief Hogan on Saturday night saying that the man above described had been seen in Janesville on Saturday afternoon crossing the railroad tracks west of the passenger station. A careful search by the police failed to show anything in regards to his being in the city.

His actions while in Mineral Point were certainly suspicious. He was surprised several times by a woman while he was prowling around the bank. She told Cashier Allen about it, but he did not think that it was of any importance. He also visited a place out in the country from Mineral Point, where men were engaged in blowing up stumps with dynamite. He was very curious to know just how much was used each time and what the effect was.

Descriptions of this man have been sent all over the country and the police hope to be able to get hold of him.

MYERS HEIRS COME TO AN AGREEMENT

What is Remaining of the Estate Divided Between John H. and Peter L. Myers.

John H. and Peter L. Myers have finally through the influence of Attorneys Jeffries and Wheeler come to an understanding in regard to a division of the estate.

The agreement gives John H. Myers the Young America block on Main street, the property on the bridge, the Galbraith barn and the warehouse adjoining it and one half interest in the Myers hotel.

Peter L. Myers gets for his share the opera house and block and one-half interest in the hotel property.

All of this property has been in the hands of a receiver for some time. The heirs have finally come to an understanding in regard to what their interests should be and have concluded that they are capable of looking after their own property interests as well as an outsider.

The order discharging the receiver will be entered this week. When this is done it will leave the heirs in a position to handle their own property interests.

JACOBSON VICKERMAN HAS PASSED AWAY

An Old Rock County Settler Living at Milton Junction, is No More—Funeral Tomorrow Morning.

Jackson Vickerman of Milton Junction, aged 72 years, died at Palmer Hospital Sunday at 5:45 a. m. He has been at the hospital for the last thirteen weeks. Three weeks ago he had an operation performed. He came to Wisconsin from England in 1852 settling in the town of Milton, where he has since made his home. His wife died nine years ago last December. He was highly respected by all who knew him. He leaves two sons and one daughter: Wm. and Thos. of Lima and Miss Maggie of Milton Junction. His remains were taken to his home in Milton Junction on Sunday afternoon.

The funeral will be held from the church of the Immaculate Conception, Milton Junction Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. Rev. F. X. Schneider will officiate. Interment in Mt. Olivet.

John Maxwell of this city died at Mrs. Henderson's hospital today at twelve o'clock as the result of an operation which was performed last Thursday. Mr. Maxwell being a sufferer from a rupture. He was forty-five years of age and resided at 3 Clarion street. He had been employed at Kellogg's nursery for some time. Deceased leaves two brothers, Miles and James Maxwell, two nephews, John and Stephen Maxwell and one niece, Mrs. Thomas Kennecan, all of this city, besides many friends. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Funeral of Mrs. H. A. Chapin. All that was mortal of the late Mrs. Harriet A. Chapin was tenderly laid to rest yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held from her late home in the town of Janesville, the Rev. W. A. Hall officiating. The song service was rendered by Mrs. C. F. Yates, Mrs. Harriet Hyzer, C. N. Vankirk and George G. Paris.

BYRNE CASE BEFORE JUDGE DUNWIDDIE

In the circuit court today Judge Dunwiddie is engaged in hearing the case of William Byrne vs Colin C. MacLean and John Brown.

Some of the witnesses testified to the character of the offices kept by Byrne. John W. Hogan, George E. Tanberk, A. E. Shumway, T. W. Goldin and A. E. Tanberg were put on the stand by the defense for the purpose of impeaching the testimony of Byrne. They all swore they would not believe him under oath. The plaintiff had the following witnesses called, who testified that they knew the plaintiff and that his reputation for truth and veracity was good. They were Wm. Graves, Richard Miller, Van Buren Witham, Dr. E. H. Dudley, G. A. Crossman, Charles L. Gums and David McGinley.

The attorneys in the case expect to get to the arguments during the afternoon.

PORTRAIT OF THE LATE MISS WILLARD

A very pleasant feature of last evening's service at the First M. E. church was the presentation of a handsome portrait of Miss Frances E. Willard artistically framed. It was the gift of the Junior League to the church and the presentation speech was nicely made by Miss Bertha Rutter, treasurer of the Juniors. Rev. W. W. Woodside responded, thanking the League for the gift which will be highly prized by the church which is very proud of being the one attended by Miss Willard in her youth.

Missionary Women Meet

Eighteen members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church enjoyed the hospitality of the Misses Eliza and Isabelle Cleland at their home, five miles west of the city on the Mineral Point road, Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in a pleasant social way after which the guests partook of an appetizing supper which was faultlessly served by the hostesses. This is the fourteenth consecutive year that the Presbyterian missionary society has been entertained at the Cleland home and one of the ladies who was numbered among the guests last Saturday has only missed one of these occasions of pleasure.

A. E. RUSH & CO. GOT CITY HALL PLANS

The Grand Rapids Firm Will Draw the Specifications and Outlines for the Janesville Building.

The city hall building committee held a meeting this morning and awarded the drawing of the plans for the new city hall to A. E. Rush & Co., of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mr. A. W. Rush has been in the city for several days in consultation with the building committee and the order for the plans was finally awarded to his firm. Mr. Rush expects to have the plans ready for the inspection of the committee in about four weeks. His firm makes a specialty of public buildings. They have a court house in the course of construction at Mason City, and have just completed one at Iowa City.

The idea of the committee is that the lock-up, the office of the chief of police, and the street commissioner will be in the basement. The city offices, municipal court room and the clerk of the court's room will be on the second floor.

The third floor will be used for the council chamber, mayor's office and other offices connected with the city government. The architect cannot tell how the space will be divided up until he gets an idea of just what is wanted and the dimensions of the property.

THE FELLOWS WHO GET RICH QUICK; STORIES FROM TEXAS OIL FIELDS

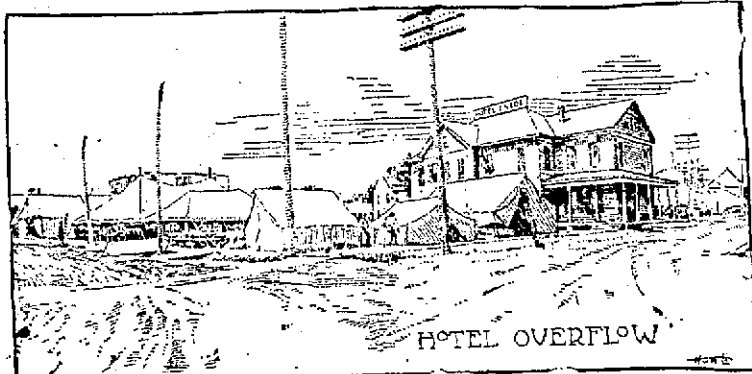

Great Bulk of Money Made at Beaumont Has Been Made by Settlers Who Owned the Land or by Men Who Got on Ground Early.

Beaumont, Tex., May 27.—Some of the get-rich-quick stories which are going the rounds here, many of which are well authenticated, are little short of marvelous, but are easily credited after one has been on the ground for a day or two and becomes familiar with the situation. The great bulk of the money, up to this time has been made by the natives, who owned the land, or by men from nearby Texas towns who got on the ground early.

An old negro and his wife who owned four acres of land on Spindletop heights out of which he grubbed a living as a truck gardener. He had tried many times to sell his land for $150, but nobody wanted it. A few weeks before the oil yet made any plans for changing his occupation.

A few weeks after the excitement began, a small farmer, who owned about twelve acres, a few miles from the city limits, heard about the big increase in land values, and talked the matter over with his wife. They decided it would be a good plan to come to town and see if he could sell the farm at a good profit. It had cost him $20 an acre. "Don't you sell for less than $1,000 an acre," were his wife's orders. He put the land in the hands of a real estate dealer, and in about an hour a speculator offered $8,000 an acre for it. The speculator had overstepped himself. The farmer shook his head and said if it was strike was made, the old negro and his wife left for a visit to a nearby county. When he returned Beaumont was full of excited men. Within ten minutes after he got home he had been offered $115,000 for his land by one of the oil companies. This was more money than he had ever heard of, and he said he guessed he'd take it, if the company would let him keep enough ground for a kitchen garden and his cabin. The deal was closed.

Tom Richardson, secretary of the Houston commercial association, came over to Beaumont in response to a telegram from D. R. Beatty, two days after the Lucas gusher "came in." He had comparatively little money, not more than a few hundred dollars, and he invested every dollar of it in the land nearest the proven field. He could cash in today for upwards of $200,000 but he isn't cashing in. He is probably the most enthusiastic and optimistic man here. His eyes fairly glisten and the muscles of his face twitch convulsively when he talks of the future of this oil field. He says there is more natural wealth waiting to spout from the bowels of the earth hereabouts than the combined riches of the Klondike, the Colorado gold mines, and the South African diamond fields.

"If Pierpont Morgan could buy a lot of old scrap steel and organize a company with a capital of $1,100,000, there is a conservative chance here for a $5,000,000,000 company worth that much he guessed he would keep it a while. It was too valuable to sell. If the speculator had offered $1,000 an acre he would have got the land.

A man named Erickson was in the soda water manufacturing business in Beaumont, eking out a living, but not getting ahead very fast. He was one of a score or more of heirs to several hundred acres of land that was not worth to exceed $10 an acre, with no market for it at that or any other price. The oil strike shot the speculative value of this land up to several thousand dollars an acre, and the Ericksons sold. Now this particular member of the family struts around Beaumont with chest thrown out and head held high and he is out of the soda water business.

C. E. Hageman, one of the joint proprietors of the New Crosby house, and a comparatively poor man pooled $700 with three friends the day following the "coming in" of the first gusher, and invested it in seven acres of land. They sold half the tract for $5000, a net profit of a few hundred dollars each, and with the agreement that two wells be sunk at once by the purchasers to enhance the value of the rest of their holdings. One of these wells is the Star and Crescent, which "came in" the other day is said by experts to be the equal of the Lucas in capacity. The net result to Hageman up to date, as the result of his $700 investment, is $40,000 cash in the bank, several thousand without a bit of overcapitalization," is the way Richardson puts it.

Richardson came from Kansas, originally, and was a newspaper man before he located in Houston. He is about forty years old, tall and angular, and fairly bubbles over with geniality. His friends call him "Smiling Tom."

Richardson told me that a boy worked in his office at Houston, got hold of a few dollars and came over here to invest it. "The other day the boy showed me his bank book," said Richardson. "It had $3500 in it. The little cuss had been getting leases and options and turning them over. I told him he was on the right track, but not to lose his head." There is hardly a native here who is not a great deal richer than he was four months ago. Every man, woman or boy with a spark of intelligence got into the game in some way or other, and once in it, made money in spite of themselves.

A clerk named Pearson, in one of the drug stores here, had saved about sixty dollars out of his small earnings, and being afraid he would spend it, invested it about six months ago, in land. Fortunately for him, this land happened to be within a few hundred yards of the Lucas gusher. He sold it a few weeks ago for $104,000. He is still drawing soda water and making pills in the drug store, and says he hasn't as shares of stock in various companies, and he has a little land left which is worth several hundred times what he paid for it.

A lawyer named Brooks borrowed $1,500 to invest in the stock of one of the oil companies at twenty-five cents a share. A few days after he bought the stock the company struck a gusher and he sold for $60,000 cash. Most of this he invested in land near the gushers, although the price at that time was so high as to scare timid investors.

As the gushers came in, one by one, the value of his land kept increasing, until today, Brooks is said to have holdings worth $500,000.

These are only a few of the scores of similar cases that could be cited, but they give some idea why the Beaumontites all look pleasant.

BLOOD

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. It sets the whole body going again—man, woman and child.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

Gentlemen:

I enclose you contract for the supply of coffee for the Bailey Cartiering Company, at the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo during the coming summer. In the selection of your coffee, in competition with samples submitted by a number of the largest Importers and Roasters in tea country, I have been governed entirely by the quality of the same. My experience with the coffee supplied to me during the past year or so by your house has been so uniformly satisfactory that I feel that I could do no better than to complete this arrangement with you. The amount of coffee which this involves will probably amount to as much or more than has ever been supplied to one consumer in the same length of time, and I congratulate you upon your enterprise in having secured this contract.

Very truly,

CLASS OF '01 SENDS OUT INVITATIONS

Unique and Tasteful Programs for the High School Commencement
June 4, 5 and 6.

This week the class of '01 of the Janesville High School will issue its invitations for annual commencement exercises which will be held in the High School gymnasium Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June fourth, fifth and sixth.

The invitations are unique and are the tasteful result of modern printer's skill. They will be sent out in pasteboard rolls. The invitation itself is in form of a roll, the outer covering being of white, defender cover. A silver colored ring holds the roll in position and another smaller ring holds a roll which contains the list of the graduates. The two rings are fastened together with a white silk cord and tassel which fasten together the leaves of the booklet which forms the invitation.

The front page of the booklet contains the formal words of invitation. At the top of the page is an embossed triangle in royal purple and old gold bearing the letters "J. H. S. '01." Underneath the design is the class motto, "Upward and Onward." The lettering of the invitation is over a design representing the various symbols of knowledge, done in a delicate tinting that is very effective.

The invitation also announces the Alumni banquet which is to be held Friday evening, June seventh, and the Senior class dancing party which will be given Monday evening, June tenth.

The inner pages of the booklet the list of the graduates together with the part which each will take in the commencement exercises. The program for each evening's exercises has not been arranged as yet. Besides the customary orations, these and class song there will be an anvil chorus and a mock trial. The token to be presented will be a piece of statuary to be used as a companion to the statue given by last year's class.

The part which each graduate will take in the program is told by the following list:

SUFFRAGISTS MEET AT MINNEAPOLIS

Their National Convention Will Be Held in the Minnesota City from May 29 to June 5.

The national convention of the Woman's Suffrage association, one of the chief annual assemblies of women in point of interest, will be held at Minneapolis this week. The convention will open on May 29 and close on June 5, and within that space of time the suffragists hope to more than equal all of the interesting features of the last session at Washington. Susan B. Anthony will be there. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt will play the usual prominent part. Chicago women will attend in large numbers.

The convention is not to be confined to the question of the enfranchisement of women and how best to secure equal rights with the masculine portion of humanity. The women will take up questions that interest them outside this central purpose of their organization.

The program for the first day's session is as follows:
2:30 p. m.—Opening exercises, greeting of honorary president, Elizabeth Cady Stanton; greeting of honorary president, Susan B. Anthony; President's address, Carrie Chapman Catt; report of vice-president, the Rev. Howard Anna Shaw.

3 p. m.—Addresses of welcome; address, the Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, Pennsylvania.

Good Health

Is doubtless the highest human good. It is especially so to women, to whom it means the preservation of beauty, happiness in the home, and the enjoyment of social duties. There can be no good health for any woman who suffers from womanly diseases. Her complexion fails. Her flesh loses its firmness. Her eyes are dull. She has no home happiness, no social enjoyment.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which destroy the health. It establishes regularity, dries disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It gives good health to women, which means tranquil nerves, a good appetite and sound sleep.

"I was a great sufferer two years ago with female trouble and I wrote to you for advice," says Mrs. Mattie Hays, of Triniton, McDonald Co., Missouri. "You outlined a course of treatment for me. I followed your directions, and now feel like a different person. I never expected to hear from you when I wrote to you. In three days after I commenced taking your medicine I began to feel better. I took twenty dollars' worth of the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I bought it five dollars' worth at a time, and also four vials of Dr. Pierce's Pellets. I would not take one thousand dollars for the good the medicine has done me. I can't praise it enough. I wish all who suffer with such troubles would give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial. I can work all day—doing anything, walk where I please, and feel good. Many thanks to you for your kind advice."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

fight with Tillman upon the issues in which we differ. I earnestly hope that all others will keep out of our race and run for the other senatorship, so that Tillman and I may meet as man to man and fight it out. He said he was unwilling to bulldoze me into a joint debate with him if I was afraid to meet him. I have shown him that I was not afraid, and now I hope that he will not be afraid to meet me alone in the senatorial race. I hope that he will not get any of his strikers into the race to dodge behind. Let the others scramble for the place I vacate.

The campaign will probably take place in October so as to give opportunity for the primaries to be held and the appointments to be made before congress meets.

Must Fight to the Finish
Washington, May 27.—The action of Senators Tillman and McLaurin in resigning their seats and appealing to the people for re-election in order to settle a feud between them is deplored by such of their colleagues as are in the city. Without desiring to criticize the personal conduct of the two men the opinion is freely expressed that they acted hastily and in hot blood. If it were possible for the resignations to be withdrawn the friends of the men would be glad but it is realized that the matter has gone too far and that they must fight to the finish.

Army Officers Arrested.
Manila, May 27.—Capt. Michael Spellman, Lieut. Delbert R. Jones and Surgeon Dudley W. Welch of company G, 43d infantry, stationed at Maasin, southern Leyte, have been arrested on charge of trading in permits to ship hemp from the closed ports. They will be tried by court martial. It has not been determined whether Manila hemp buyers are directly implicated.

City Official Under Arrest.
Colorado Springs, Colo., May 27.—Moses T. Hale, who has been for eight years city treasurer of Colorado Springs, and Charles E. Smith, who was for four years prior to 1897 the city clerk, are under arrest on charges of embezzlement of $20,000 as principal and accessory. This action has been expected for some time, a shortage having been discovered May 1.

Discover Gold in Texas.
Dallas, Texas, May 27.—What appears to be a genuine gold strike has been made at Kemp, forty miles south-east of Dallas. A blacksmith who owns the land refuses to sell at any price. He claims the assays show $45 to the ton. There is little doubt that there is gold in the place mentioned, but whether it is of such good quality is not so certain.

Give Advice to Burglars.
Youngstown, O., May 27.—Burglars of Erie ticket offices should read the signs on Erie safes hereafter. Today general orders were issued to all ticket agents to the effect that when no money is kept in the safes at night they should be left open. Notices reading, "Safe open; no money in it," were also ordered displayed.

Noted Minstrel Is Dying.
Mount Vernon, O., May 27.—"Dan" Emmett, the founder of burnt cork minstrelsy, is dying in his lonely home high up on a hilltop near this place. The famous singer, musician and composer is 86 years old and for years has lived the life of a hermit, having no companion save a dog.

There was a white frost on Saturday night, but it was not sufficiently had to do much damage. A frost on the 25th of May is doing pretty well even for Wisconsin.

Mercury AND Potash

Everybody knows that Mercury is a dangerous medicine even when administered in very small doses, and few constitutions can stand it for any length of time. Potash produces inflammation of the stomach and bowels, and a dangerous form of dyspepsia and often chronic diarrhoea follow its use.

Now, the doctors will tell you if you have Contagious Blood Poison you must take these minerals for two years or longer; first, a course of Mercury, and when your teeth get so sensitive and sore that you can't eat, and the gums have a spongy, unnatural appearance, you are told to stop and a change to Potash is made. When the stomach rebels you are put on Mercury again, and so on ad infinitum, or until the system becomes so thoroughly saturated with these poisonous drugs that the most disgusting sores break out on the body, the bones become diseased, and the muscles and joints are racked with the most torturing pains. Mercury and Potash drive the eruptions and blotches from the skin, but the virus remains in the blood and the reappearance of the old symptoms and the occasional sore mouth show that the poison is still active, and you can never hope to completely eradicate it by this method of treatment.

When I was about twenty-one years of age, or eighteen years ago, I contracted Blood Poison in a bad form, and am satisfied that the rapid progress the disease was making would soon have made me a life-long invalid or ended my life. As my system came under the influence of S. S. S., the sores, blotches and pimples gradually disappeared and soon no evidence of the disease was left. I am now thirty-nine years old, and have seen no signs of it during the past eighteen years. S. S. S. does all you claim for it.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and we offer $1,000 for proof that it contains any mineral ingredient whatever. The general health improves as the Specific purges the system of impurities, and as new, rich blood begins to flow in the veins the unsightly sores and other evidences of blood poison disappear; strength returns and you are forever rid of this loathsome disease.

Our Home Treatment Book on Contagious Blood Poison tells you all about the symptoms, different stages, etc., of this disease. We will mail you a copy free. If you need advice or special directions, write our physicians; it will cost you nothing and may hasten your cure. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
